

WELCOME TO THE JEWISH ORTHODOX WORLD

Learn more about the traditional lifestyle

This is a unique and fascinating opportunity to spend an evening in an orthodox Jewish family.

Dovi and Leah, a young observing couple invites you for a traditional Jewish dinner accompanied by the explanation about the uniqueness of the orthodox lifestyle.

You will be able to satisfy your interest in any aspect of life according to the Jewish tradition, such as dating, marriage, the status of women and much more!

Your questions are more than welcome.

The conversation will be held either in English, German, Spanish, Russian or French.

The length of the event is approximately an hour and a half.

Traditional Jewish food will be served, including Soft drinks, cholent, bread, salads, meat, rice, potatoes and dessert.

We are looking forward to welcome you in our house, Dovi, Lally and the kids

