THEATRON JERUSALEM

THE ART OF LIVING

- Theatron, pronounced “tay-ah-trohn” in Hebrew, means “theater.” Theatron is part of the Jerusalem Theater complex, a cultural venue where the stage, screen, visual, and handmade art converge.
- The location was a coveted piece of undeveloped land for years, bought by the Hasid brothers of Achim Hasid Developers in 2008.
- Known for their scrupulous attention to detail and quality of materials, Achim Hasid had a vision for this property, which took almost fifteen years to develop and complete to what is now the luxurious Theatron Hotel and Residence by MGallery.
- Located at the intersection of three of Jerusalem’s most prized neighborhoods—Talbieh, German Colony, & Old Katamon—Theatron is ideally situated on the route of what is being developed as the “Cultural Kilometer,” an artistic hub of entertainment, eateries, quaint sidewalk cafes, and bike paths.
- Tucked around the corner from the bustling city center and overlooking a grove of pine trees with open panoramic view of southern Jerusalem, Theatron is the winning combination of culture, convenience, and tranquility.
- Surrounded by restored stone villas from the 20th century, lush greenery, cultural centers, and iconic landmarks, Theatron is the first MGallery in Jerusalem, part of the Accor Group.
- Offering its guests a meaningful and memorable experience of high-class, modern Israeli culture, the 73-room hotel features a posh lobby bar, an indoor swimming pool, and a spa by Clarins.
